Getting the most out of your iPad

Class offered February 10

Treat yourself to a new and fresh look at the Apple iPad through this educational offering in February. The Estes Park Senior Center, 220 Fourth Street, and the Estes Park Internet Computer Users Group (EPICUG) will offer a class called Getting the most out of your iPad – an Introduction on Tuesday, February 10 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Senior Center. The cost is $15 for current Estes Park Senior Citizens Center, Inc. members or $19 for non-members; registration is now open at the Senior Center.

A minimum of five participants is needed for this class; the registration deadline is Tuesday, February 3. Class size is limited and early registration is encouraged. If the minimum has been met and spaces remain after the February 3 deadline, registration will continue until all seats are filled.

This class is for those who already own an Apple iPad 2 or above and have had some experience with iPad features. For the class, please bring your iPad, fully charged and upgraded to the latest version iOS8+ as well as your Apple ID and password. Participants will learn overall functions, features and settings and how to perform tasks easier including how to connect to the Internet and how to access various applications.

For more information, please contact the Estes Park Senior Center at (970) 586-2996 or visit the Center at 220 Fourth Street, Monday through Friday between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Please visit the Senior Center website at www.estes.org/seniorcenter.
